

Revolutionary War Heroes Note-Taking Sheet

I. Introduction

Introduce the Revolutionary War and why it was occurring. Then introduce your person and briefly state their contribution to the war/war effort.

II. General biography

Tell where/when s/he was born.	Tell about family members & background. (Were they wealthy? What was their occupation - farmers? Shopkeepers?)
Is there something interesting about his/her childhood?	What was his/her educational background?
Was s/he married?	Did s/he have children?
What are some interesting things about his/her post-war years?	Where/when did s/he die?

Revolutionary War Heroes Note-Taking Sheet

III. Contribution to the Revolutionary War

What did s/he do?	What did s/he do? (continued)
Why was it important	What was the effect on the outcome or morale in the war?

IV. Evaluation of his/her contribution

What would you have done in his/her place?	Do you think s/he made a good choice?
Would you have had the personal qualities to do what s/he did?	How might things have turned out if this person had not made the same choices?

V. Conclusion

Summarize what you wrote in the paper. Properly end the report
--

Revolutionary War Heroes Note-Taking Sheet